 Résumé

My Credentials & Qualifications

Twenty years appraising the Baltimore and Washington markets, forty years living in them.

I am a Certified Residential Real Estate Appraiser licensed in Maryland, with over 20 years of experience appraising residential properties in the Baltimore and Washington, DC metropolitan markets. As an active professional within these markets, I have developed extensive knowledge of local neighborhoods, market trends, and regional factors influencing property values.

I hold a Bachelor's degree from Towson University. To maintain my licensure and uphold industry standards, I complete all required Continuing Education courses, including USPAP training.

I own and operate LendPort Appraisals, Inc. My business is built on long-term relationships with a select panel of lenders, banks, AMCs and credit unions.

Appraisal Qualifications & Geographic Competency Statement

I am a Maryland Certified Residential Real Estate Appraiser (License No. 30027565) with more than 20 years of experience appraising one- to four-unit residential properties in the Baltimore metropolitan area. I reside in Baltimore County and work regularly in Baltimore City and the surrounding Maryland counties that comprise my typical assignment area. Continuous practice in these markets supports familiarity with local neighborhood characteristics, housing stock, and factors that affect residential value.

Assignment experience includes single-family residences and 2- to 4-unit properties, as well as water-privileged sites, new construction, and distressed properties. Scope has included both as-is and subject-to valuations.

I hold a Bachelor's degree from Towson University. I complete all continuing education required to maintain licensure, including current USPAP, and practice in accordance with USPAP and applicable GSE guidelines.

My fee schedule, E&O Insurance, and Form W-9 are provided during onboarding.

Respectfully,
